

CORONA CULTURE is an exhibition, sociocultural program and documentary about how the current pandemic affects our values, relationships, yearnings and future, revealing a mosaic of perspectives in the way we encounter uncertainty.